Instruction for annual CROP Hunger Walk

The CROP Hunger Walk on Sunday October 9, 2011 is a fun way to join others from around the Lehigh Valley to raise funds for the hungry here at home and across the world.

All confirmation students are expected to participate. It is a required service project. Even if you can't walk, we ask that you attempt to raise funds.

Take an envelope, record your name and number on the sign out sheet and follow the instructions of the front of the envelope.

Info for front cover....

The walk name is: Allentown Area
Walk Date is: Oct 9, 2011
Walk Time/Location is: 1pm at St Timothy's Lutheran Church

Info for yellow sheet...

Your name and information goes here.
Congregation is Grace Lutheran, Macungie
(be sure to put Macungie, as there are other Grace Lutheran Churches)

Participants need to turn in their completed donation envelopes on SUNDAY MORNING the day of the walk. PARENTS need to sign consent on bottom left.

CROP permission slip (this form) also needs to be turned in to Pastor SUNDAY MORNING the day of the walk.

Like any other fund raiser, this asks you to make your own gift (all checks payable to CROP), and also invite family, neighbors, extended family to help you raise your goal. You can go to the church website at GraceMacungie.org and click on the CROP link and using the Your Walk tab, Sign Up to become an online member. Then you can use your own personal link to send to out of town friends and family and ask them to make contributions.

For the walk we will meet at St. Timothy's Lutheran Church at 140 South Ott Street in Allentown at 1pm. St Timothy's is two blocks south of Hamilton Blvd, near Cedar Crest College, BUT you can't turn right onto Ott from Hamilton. Turn the street prior.

Please pick up your child at St Timothy's when the walk is over (3:00 to 3:30pm?) OR better yet, walk WITH your child!
